

Get involved, Dads! Read to, and with, your children.

10,000 Fathers Reading!

Held for the third time, 10,000 Fathers Reading! initiative has benefited more than 20,000 participants since its launch in 2007. The aim is to encourage fathers to take an active role in developing a love for reading among their children, and to strengthen family bonds.

"There is no replacement for spending quality time with your child in front of a book. You must read to, and with, your child. It makes a big difference if a father is involved. My three children (two girls and a boy) got very excited when I spent time by reading to them. I put in special effort by creating my own children stories with good values in order to keep their interest high. At the end of the day, they asked for more!"

Mr Inderjit Singh, 49, MP for Ang Mo Kio GRC is one of the 15 reading ambassadors appointed for NLB's 10,000 Fathers Reading! initiative in June this year.
